Copenhagen, April 23.

ON the 17th Instant arrived here an Expreſs, diſpatched from Lubeck by the Daniſh Reſident there, with Advice, that ſeven or eight Swediſh Men of War, beſides leſſer armed Veſſels, had obliged ſome Daniſh Frigates which were cruiſing in the Baltick to retire to the Port of Travemunde near Lubeck, where they were ſo blocked up by the Enemy, that they were in great Danger of being taken unleſs ſpeedily aſſiſted: Hereupon the King called a Council the ſame Evening, and the next Morning a Yacht was ſent with Orders to Rear-Admiral Gabel to make the beſt of his Way with his Squadron, conſiſting of eight Men of War and five Frigates to the Port of Travemunde, and endeavour to ſave the ſaid Frigates, by engaging the Enemy at all Hazards: So that we are expecting to hear ſuddenly of an Action at Sea, the rather becauſe Intelligence came Yeſterday that Rear-Admiral Gabel, with his Squadron, ſailed from Bornholm the 2 th with a very fair Wind. The Horſe Guards were ordered ſome Days ago to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march for Holſtein as to Morrow; but the King having ſince countermanded them, 'tis thought he himſelf will delay a while his Departure for that Dutchy. The 24th the Swedes refuſed to receive at Helſingbourg the Engliſh Letters ſent over as uſual from Elſinore, the Governeur of Helſingbourg declaring that he had poſitive Orders from the King his Maſter not to let any Foreign Letters paſs. The 10th of next Month is to be obſerved as a Day of Faſting and Prayer, throughout this Kingdom and the Territories depending on it, for good Succeſs the enſuing Campaign. To Day two Men of War ſailed from hence to join our Squadron in the Baltick. A Daniſh Ship commanded by Captain Vosbin, has taken a Swediſh Privateer in the North Sea, and reſcued a Daniſh and an Engliſh Ship which that Privateer had taken.

Stralſund, April 12. O. S. M. Henke, whom the King has lately advanced to the Dignity of Admiral, ſailed from hence the ſeventh Inſtant at Night, with three Frigates from 20 to 30 Guns each, and with ſome other ſmaller Veſſels, to the Number of 10 or 12 together; with which he is to joyn at Sea four Swediſh Ships of the Line, and three Frigates. His Swediſh Majeſty has appointed Major General Mevius to go to the Court of Vienna.

Bruſſels, April 27. Count Koningſeck the Imperial Plenipotentiary, who came hither ſome Days ago from Antwerp, is gone back thither this Morning; but propoſes to return to this Place the thirtieth, unleſs he be prevented by Mr. Cadogan's Arrival there from Holland by that time, in order to renew the Conferences for ſettling the Barrier. During the Count's Stay at Antwerp he was in Conference with the Deputies of the States General, and delivered to them a Paper of Remarks upon the State of the Debt ſtill remaining due
